DR. H. H. YOST.

PRACTICAL AND SCIENCIFIC OPTICIAN,

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27.—Indications for the upper Missouri and Arkansas river valleys:—Fair weather: slight rise in temperature; southly winds becoming variable.

NEW YORK, June 27.—First Lieutenant Theodore Smith, of the 15th infentry. United States army, drop-vision, and assist nature in retaining the nor mal condition of the eve, is a matter that cannot be too carefully attended to, and should not be done in heats.

If you are rich I don't want all your wealth for a pair of my lenses. While I am no cheap optician, dealing in cheap goods, I will not ask of you more than you are willing to pay after seeing what I can do for you. If you are poor don't let poverty keep you away. The Lord knows that if anybody needs good aight it is the poor. So come and see me, and I promise you the same aftention and same lenses that the rich have, and at a price that you are able to pay.

Yours respectfully.

Tours respectfully.
